

State Atomic Energy Corporation Rosatom

24/26, Bolshaya Ordynka, Moscow 119017, Russia

Tel. +7 (499) 9494254 fax: +7 (499) 9492263

Email: info@rosatom.info, www.rosatom.ru

State Atomic Energy Corporation Rosatom manages all nuclear assets of the Russian Federation, including civil sector and nuclear weapons complex. Rosatom State Corporation combines commercial activities aimed at construction of NPPs and development of nuclear fuel cycle enterprises, and duties entrusted by the State: Rosatom ensures national security of the country and nuclear deterrence in the world arena; nuclear and radiation safety of all the nuclear facilities in Russia; development of Russian applied and basic nuclear science and nuclear education.

Rosatom, on behalf of the Russian Federation, is authorized to fulfill international obligations of Russia in the field of peaceful use of atomic energy and non-proliferation of nuclear material.

Rosatom State Corporation was established on December 18th, 2007. The main body of Rosatom is Atomenergoprom State Holding which incorporates the civil assets of the nuclear sector. Besides, Rosatom manages nuclear-propelled icebreaker fleet and supervises INTER RAO UES company, which controls a variety of energy assets in 14 countries worldwide, and JSC Atomstroyexport that builds NPPs worldwide. General Director of State Atomic Energy Corporation Rosatom is Sergey Kirienko.