

50 words required by NIA for inclusion in publicity material

Serco is a specialist technical support organisation with 50 years nuclear experience. We have a broad range of science and engineering services that underpin safe operating environments across the nuclear sector. We deliver nuclear safety, environmental and risk management services that enable our clients to meet the nuclear regulatory requirements.

Approved