

NEST^{et}

Call for Papers

Send your contributions now!

The ENS Conference on NUCLEAR ENGINEERING SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY – education and training (NESTet) will take place in Budapest, Hungary 4 – 8 May 2008.

The conference will be dedicated to networking in nuclear education and training across the fields of science, engineering and technology and is organized in cooperation with the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), the European Nuclear Education Network (ENEN) Association and the American Nuclear Society (ANS).

The NESTet 2008 Programme Committee and the European Nuclear Society (ENS) are NOW calling for presentations. We invite both oral papers and poster presentations for the following thematical tracks:

- Science, Engineering and Technology in Education
- Training Programmes for Industry
- Experimental Facilities for Education and Training
- The role of Education in Knowledge Management
- Radiation Protection

Instructions for authors

Please download the NESTet 2008 Abstract Form at www.nestet2008.org

Authors should submit their abstract text electronically by email, in English on one page (400 words) using Microsoft Word format (.doc),

By:

15 January 2008

Full paper submission deadline: 28 March 2008.

Email ALL correspondence to nestet2008@euronuclear.org

Your paper contribution will be included in the Conference Proceedings (Transactions) that will be available on CD-ROM (after the conference) and posted on the conference website:

www.nestet2008.org

NEST^{et}

Abstract review

The abstracts received will be reviewed under the auspices of the NESTet Programme Committee. Authors will be notified of paper acceptance by 15 February 2008.

NESTet Programme Committee

Philip Beeley (UK) Chairman

Csaba Sukosd (Hungary) Co-Chairman and Local Committee

Tamas Pazmandi (Hungary) Chairman Hungarian Nuclear Society

Peter Gowin (IAEA)

Joseph Safieh (France and ENEN)

Michele Coeck (Belgium)

Anselm Shaefer (Germany)

Helmuth Boeck (Austria)

Javier Dies (Spain)

Gilbert Brown (ANS(USA) and also WNU)

Richard Coe (Independent Consultant CONTE 07 Chairman)

Igor Vukovic (YGN)

Jan van der Steen (The Netherlands & EUTERP)

Conference Organiser
European Nuclear Society
contact: Kirsten Epskamp
Rue de la Loi 57
1040 Brussels, Belgium
Tel. + 32 2 505 30 58

Nestet2008@euronuclear.org

www.nestet2008.org