

Managerial Competences and Leadership for Safety Culture

A course for senior managers in the nuclear sector

The TRANUSAFE project

The objective of the project is the design and development of training schemes on nuclear safety culture.

This course for senior managers has been designed following extensive consultations with both users of radiation and the nuclear industry.

Location

Chancellors Hotel is a Grade II listed mansion located in Manchester offering three-star accommodation, and is surrounded by five acres of beautiful, well-maintained gardens.

Chancellors has a great reputation for excellent food and provides a perfect environment for high quality conferences and workshops.

The Course Will Cover

- Responsibilities, accountability and the role of management in building, promoting and encouraging safety culture;
- Organisational systems for Radiation Protection, Safety and Safety Culture;
- Commercial and safety benefits of a strong safety culture;
- Case studies will be used to illustrate these themes.

Course Fee

€1100 which includes two nights accommodation with high quality menu choices. Personalised mentoring and course materials will be provided.

Chancellors Hotel, Manchester, UK
27th - 28th November 2013
Further details at www.tranusafe.eu or Email Professor Jon Billowes j.billowes@manchester.ac.uk